wrote that as is evident to anyone reading it.

~~If you don't want~~

Should you send it (the original) If you don't want it particularly, I'd keep it. If you do want it, I'll type it & send it back.

I hate to put you to this trouble but I do want a copy of it!

Love,
Arthur

Dear Two!

I hope this card finds you in good shape. Just read your P.M. My God! The things you have ferreted out, Harold. Are you still doing all the typing, Li'l?

I have a little problem, Harold. The copy of a letter that I wrote you ~~also~~ about Ruth Paine (in which I enumerate all the "evidence" that came from her house) has simply vanished from my files. It was not the one about her calendar (I was in the process of cracking up when I
